

EDUCATION NIGHT

Women's Recovery (Summit & Denver)

"Women and the Path to Recovery"

There are progressive thinkers in the field of substance abuse treatment that want to move from a "one size fits some" to the goodness of fit for individualized care, especially for women.

Monday, February 3, 2020, 6:00 to 7:30 pm
Ten Mile Room, 2nd floor of the Medical Office Building located at 360 Peak One Dr, Frisco, CO
~Light Refreshments will be provided~

Jeanette Kintz

Briana Severine

Join us for an evening of education about women and overcoming substance use disorder. You will learn:

- Fundamentals of substance use disorder (signs of distress, diagnostic criteria)
- How gender-specific treatment for women differs from general treatment
- American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM) Levels of Care and how they are determined
- Signs a loved one is struggling and what to do next
- What makes treatment offered by Women's Recovery (Denver and Summit) so special?

Jeanette Kintz is a Licensed Professional Counselor, a Licensed Addiction Counselor and serves as the Clinical Director at Summit Women's Recovery. Jeanette has served the Summit County community in a variety of settings for the last 17 years. She has extensive experience in the substance abuse field, in settings such as detox and Recovery Court. Jeanette looks forward to helping women develop integrity & self-worth on their journey to wellness.

Briana Severine is a Licensed Professional Counselor, Licensed Addiction Counselor, and Certified Psychiatric Rehabilitation Practitioner and serves as the Director of Marketing & Admissions at Women's Recovery. Briana's career has focused on those with chronic persistent mental health and co-occurring substance use disorder in a variety of settings including acute care hospitals, outpatient clinics, and residential treatment. Briana looks forward to helping women find the treatment course that is best for them.

NAMI, the National Alliance on Mental Illness, is the nation's largest grassroots mental health organization dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness. NAMI High Country Colorado is a local affiliate of NAMI Colorado. NAMI High Country Colorado's dedicated volunteers, members and leaders are helping to raise awareness, reduce stigma, provides essential education, advocacy and support for families and individuals in our community living with mental illness.

Contact: NAMI HCC to find out more about NAMI Support Groups! Programs! And Training!

www.namihighcountryco.org or leave a message at 970-718-2828

Participant Perspectives

"NAMI Connection is the promise of what is and what can be in our lives."

